one of Singapore's highest honours,
in the National Day Awards 2024!

The privilege to serve NUHS and NUS alongside outstanding leaders and colleagues is an honour in itself. I am very grateful for this award which is personally meaningful. More importantly, it is a tribute to these fine institutions and the many remarkable individuals that I work with.

The incredible dedication and tenacity of our healthcare colleagues during the pandemic, as well as the passion of our academic community for excellence in research and education are most uplifting. ”
