

Dr Ruth Zheng Mingli

Designations:

Senior Consultant Family Physician, National University Polyclinics (NUP)
Programme Director, Family Medicine Programme, National University Health System (NUHS)

Qualifications:

MBBS (Singapore), M.Med (Family Medicine, Singapore),
MCFP(S), FCFP(S)

Dr Ruth Zheng is the Programme Director of the Family Medicine Residency Programme at the National University Health System (NUHS). She practises in the National University Polyclinics (NUP) as a senior consultant family physician. She also holds the position of Programme Director of the Family Physician Consultant Development Programme under NUP, where physicians are supported in their Fellowship training. Her research interests include inter-professional collaboration and child health. She is also the principal investigator for a study on screening for autism in low-risk toddlers in primary care clinics.

Research Interests

- Inter-professional collaboration
- Child health

Journals & Publications

1. Aortic and mitral valve endocarditis caused by Gemella morbillorum in a haemodialysis patient. SMJ 2008; 49(12): e385
2. Should aspirin be used for primary prevention of colorectal cancer in the general population? The Singapore Family Physician Vol 42(1) (Jan-Mar 2016)
3. Attitudes towards interprofessional collaboration among primary care physicians and nurses in Singapore. Journal of Interprofessional Care. 7th June 2016.

Email:

Ruth_mingli_zheng@nuhs.edu.sg

Last Updated 17 June 2022