

Diagnosed with Triple Negative Breast Cancer in 2014, Cathy faced financial difficulties and could not afford her treatment.

With the support from NUHS Fund, Cathy was relieved of her financial burden and could focus on receiving treatment.

“I do not know you but you were willing to lend me a helping hand. Your simple act of kindness gave me a new chance at life. I cherish the moments I have with my loved ones even more.”

Click to light up more patients' lives today!